Shall I go boldly to John Harbuckle, and tell him everything? he asked himself presently. He knows where my Jessie is. I suppose it will come to that some time or another. Why not at once? No, I can t; I cannot. Am I radically a coward?--There are men I can t face. He s one of them. The dining-room of the Tavistock is not very unlike the coffee-room. It is the fashion in that old established house to have the joints on wheeled tables for the better pleasing of those who are fastidious as to their cut of beef or mutton. The waiter found Mr. Birkett difficult to please on the evening of this particular day; and no sooner had that most obliging functionary...
