Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.About the book, Light and Shadow In this eighth book of Larry Henares Jr., engineer, economist, essayist, businessman, educator, public servant, TV and radio commentator, writes of the forgotten ethnic minorities of our land, the remnants of the Conquistadores of Spain and of the Celestial Dragons of China. He points out that Imperial Spain suffered its first (Mactan) and final defeat (Battle of Manila Bay) in the Philippines, and was only resurrected when Bea Zobel and her group occupied Malacanang and exiled President Cory to her Guest House office and to her Arlegui residence. In his wacky world, the late Louie Beltran libeled Cory and her bed out of pure envy because His Immensity had to be resigned to sleep on a cement slab; and Teddyboy Locsin s dirty finger assumed the proportions of a work of art. A negro tormentor of Gretchen Barretto sweats mud, and the most maligned Frank Chavez assumes the role of Queen s Musketeer, Knight errant, and Roman Tribune. But Larry also writes lovingly of the role of the Virgin Mary in a complex...
