Excerpt from Memorial Addresses on the Life and Character of Henry Wilson, (Vice-President of the United States): Delivered in the Senate and House of Representatives, January 21, 1876, with Other Congressional Tributes of Respect Henry Wilson was the product of New England. If there was iron in his blood, if there was strength in his muscle, if there was backbone in his frame, he owed it, in part, to the tuition of that sterile and rocky soil; to the cold and inclement, the stern and serious aspects of that uninviting coast to which the Pilgrims came. Ay, more than this, Henry Wilson was the product of the New England idea - now become the American idea: That man is man, and nothing can be greater; and that when God made man in His own image. He made him to have dominion, first, over himself, and, then, over just as vast an empire among men, as, under God, he could subject to himself. Henry Wilson was ambitious. Let us thank God that he was. When, on the 16th...

The publication is easy in read better to understand. It is writer in basic words and phrases rather than hard to understand. You wont truly feel monotony at anytime of your respective time (that's what catalogues are for about if you question me).
