Paperback. 114 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.3in. New England friends make the discovery of the ages. A discovery that changes their perception of everything! The meaning of life, the past, the future, and the very fundamentals of reality itself are all revealed. The Universal Timeworks is unveiled! Four guys go exploring and discover an enigmatic house deep in the woods. As they explore the house weird things start happening and they come to the startling realization that its a doorway, a portal! Dimensions are not what they seem; time is not what it seems. Its a gateway to realms only spoken of by the sages and prophets of antiquity and more! As their visits to the house progress they meet the Great Sages, who teach them basic precepts, revealing hidden dimensions of this world. But why It was all spectacular in itself, but they just have to know more, keeping them coming back again and again, growing in spirit and depth. They learn how to use powers long forgotten in human experience. It was overwhelming when they learned, reluctantly, that they are special people. ....
