General. Since the commencement of the great war in August, 1914, the development and improvement of the Parks and proposed Boulevards to connect up the various areas into one composite system has remained in abeyance, and practically no expenditure has been incurred on capital account, which could be avoided without sacrificing expenditures already made. This policy has been carried out with increasing rigor during the seasons 1915, 1916, and the year just past, 1917, and, apart from the large amount of time and thought required in connection with the Power Company developments and operations, the efforts of the Park organization have been devoted to the maintenance of those...
