Captain Grinter was standing pistol in hand just abaft the main companion, surrounded by the officers, and the larger portion of the crew; most of whom had firearms, and all some weapon or other. I reached the deck just as the Captain was speaking in a very loud voice, and the first words I heard fully explained to me what was the matter. Come on you mutinous dogs, shouted Captain Grinter, if you dare. The first man who moves, I ll shoot. As sure as I m captain of this ship. We aint mutinous dogs, answered a voice, but you re not going to run our necks into the noose, if we have anything to say to it. Captain Grinter turned to his officers, and after a minute, said,...
