Excerpt: . . . 11 With respect to the HUBZone program, it concerns me gravely that we continue to water down the strength of the 8 ( a ) program by layering and prioritizing other programs in its stead. The HUBZone program is a resource-intensive program to administer that requires constant monitoring in order to ensure compliance. The continued drain on the SBAs resources is hurting the 8 ( a ) program. We have already experienced considerable drops in 8 ( a ) procurement dollars since 1995 despite the fact that federal pro-curement dollars have increased steadily since that time. The HUBZone program preferences certain types of businesses and is most appropriate for certain NAICS codes. We need to look at the pay grades and more closely scrutinize the variables that lead to community development. It is critical to analyze the types of jobs that are HUBZone business...
