Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Charming Leander: A Comedy in One Act Theodore de Banville (1823-1891) was a poet endowed with delicacy of feeling and charm. His numerous little plays, nearly all in verse, are delightful vignettes of old French life. Nearly always he went to French history, tradition, or literature for his plots. Gringoire, for instance, one of his best known, is a poetic play built round the half-legendary story of the old poet Gringoire; the present sketch, on the other hand, is a purely imaginary trifle, laid in early Eighteenth Century Paris. As the translation of poetry is practically impossible, it has been deemed wise to cast Le Beau Leandre in more or less colloquial prose. The setting is fully described in the stage-directions. The costumes are of the period. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
